Euchre Club.

Mrs. M. Halporn entertained the Euchre Club Thursday afternoon in a delightful manner. Three tables were arranged for the players. The playing was lively; wit and humor flowed freely. Mrs. Jonas Levy was awarded the head prize, a pair of handsome kid gloves. Miss Stella Ash received the consolation prize, a pretty belt buckle. After this, covers were laid and a lovely luncheon served. Mrs. Halporn proved herself an ideal hostess.

Morning Party.

Doris Lucile Horwitz celebrated her birthday Thursday. Her beautiful party was given at the little home of Doris. The little hostess accepted them with the graciousness and mannerism of a queen. After the children had all arrived, Mrs. Horwitz placed in them they took in the city, stopping at Booth's, where refreshments were in waiting for them. It was a bright, happy morning for the little hostess and each little guest.

Woman's Social Club.

Mrs. E. J. Ezell entertained the Social Club Wednesday afternoon in a beautiful, informal manner. All were asked to bring their sewing and fancy work; this was very pleasing, as their pretty fancy sewing bags could be used so gracefully. While all were busy with their work, two stories from Aunt Jane of Kentucky were read. Mrs. J. G. Barry giving one, Mrs. H. R. Moore the other. Both were very much enjoyed. Work was laid by and all invited to the pretty dining room, where an elegant buffet luncheon was served. Mrs. T. M. Campbell of Austin was present. She is also one of the club members. At a late hour good-byes were said, all expressing their pleasure at "the sewing bee."

Qui Vives.

Mrs. M. A. Davey entertained a host of friends Thursday afternoon, complimentary to the Qui Vives at the beautiful Jameson residence. Every room was pretty in cut flowers. Ten tables were arranged for domino whist, after which an elaborate luncheon was served. This was an occasion where brides reigned, the following being present: Mrs. Marcus Davis of San Francisco; Mrs. Ellis Turner, Mesdames Niendorf and McElroy and Mrs. T. B. Greenwood. Miss Mary Stedman of Austin, Miss Zena McMeans of Galveston, Mrs. T. M. Campbell of Austin and Mrs. Ed Lucas of Dallas were out-of-town guests. The affair was elegant, the hostess charming, and every guest happy.

Old Friends.

Mrs. J. G. Barry entertained Friday afternoon, complimentary to her niece, Miss Mary Stedman, of Austin, the guests being Miss Mary's old school girl friends. It was a happy occasion, which brought to the hearts and minds remembrance of school days. The home was radiant in the glow of these dear girls, and that they arranged for

"500." The tally cards were American girls. After the playing covers were laid and an elaborate luncheon served. Mrs. Barry was assisted by Mrs. H. R. Moore and Miss Elizabeth Barry in entertaining. Miss Zena McMeans of Galveston and the honoree of Austin were the out-of-town girls.

League Social.

A measuring social was given by the Grace Epworth League Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wardlaw, on North Jackson street. Each person was measured on entering the house and was charged five cents per foot and one cent for every inch over. After this each guest was met by Mrs. Ocie Adkins and Miss Pauline Johnston and shown to a large room, where the guessing contest began. On the table was placed a jar of beans and each person paid a fee of beans to guess the number of beans in the jar. Mrs. Wardlaw, being the best guesser, was presented with a beautiful lunch set. Mrs. Frank Moore received the consolation prize. The guests were then seated in the drawing room, where they were served with refreshments. A cake was offered to the tallest gentleman and lady present. Misses Sue Johnston and Pearl Face, measuring the same height, and Mr. Sanford being the tallest gentleman, the cake was equally divided among the three. An enjoyable evening was spent by all and a neat sum realized, which will be used for missionary purposes.

Euterpean Minstrels

The Euterpean Minstrels, under the personal direction and management of Geo. R. Cooke and J. P. LaBarge, was the offering at the Temple Theatre last night. This organization is composed of home boys—all of them—and they gave a very creditable performance last evening. The house was well filled with an expectant company to hear the songs, see the dances and, last, but not least, the "Saloon Dance."

The curtain was rung up on time, and the introductory overture was pretty, the boys introducing "When You Hear the Bugle Calling" and "In Bohemia." The two extreme end men, J. P. LaBarge and W. H. Stinnett, arrived on the scene in miniature automobiles, the "Swift" pattern, and their coming was cause for the company singing "In My Merry Oldsmobile." Sam Cohen was the first man up, and the way he presented "Common Sense" was very pleasing. Walter Roquemore made good with "Your Lips, Your Eyes, Your Golden Hair." He has a sweet voice. Will Stinnett received the glad hand when he told about "Old Man Superstition." C. A. Johnson sang, to the delight of all, "The Sentinel Am I." Geo. K. Jowers made good with "I Just Can't Stand Prosperity," followed by Ed Maloney, who sang "I'm Starving For One Sight of You." "The Candy Kid," Jack LaBarge, was well received and, despite the fact that the orchestra did not assist him, he delighted all. The bass solo by Theo. Lehman, "Any Old Port In a Storm," was excellent. He has a splendid voice. Chas. Russ sang a unique song, "Under the Chicken Tree," and the chorus by the entire company, where they gave imitations of chickens, was up-to-now. Although suffering from a severe cold, Geo. R. Cooke made the hit of the evening with "The Glorious Highball," closing the first part. This scene, showing the company with small wine glasses, the end men with "bell tops," and all singing, was of the professional kind. The stage setting for the first part was very pretty, the work of W. H. Briggs.

Following is the personnel of the company:

Clarence Pearson, interlocutor; End men, J. P. LaBarge, W. H. Stinnett, George K. Jowers, Jno. Hearne, Bert Mingus, Tom Small, Chas. Russ, Sam Cohen; Gus Haerdner, J. A. Coates, Geo. R. Cooke, Arthur Naylor, Ernest Cook, Harry Sims, Guy Sherman, C. Griffin, Chas. Johnson, J. M. Wilson, Will Thresto, Will Thorn, Walter Roquemore, Wm. Keller, Will Peabody, Ed Maloney, Jim Mobley, F. W. Pell, Ike Elliott, D. G. Dunk, Theo. Lehman.

CITATION.

State of Texas, County of Anderson. District Court, Spring Term, A. D. 1909.

To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Anderson County—Greeting: Affidavit having been made as required by law, you are hereby commanded to summon the Heirs of Daniel Lacy, deceased, by making publication of this citation once in each week for eight successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the district court of Anderson county, to be held at the court house thereof, in Palestine, on the fourth Monday in April, A. D. 1909, the same being the 26th day of April, A. D. 1909, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 7971, then and there to answer the petition of L. J. Price and Maria Margaret Price, as plaintiffs, filed in said court on the 8th day of October, A. D. 1908, against the Heirs of Daniel Lacy, deceased, as defendants, and alleging in substance as follows, to-wit:

That on October 1st, 1908, plaintiffs were in the lawful possession as the owners in fee simple of all that portion of a certain 336 6-10 acres of land described in plaintiff's petition, which is a part of the John Adams league in Anderson county, Texas; that afterwards on October 1st, 1908, defendants unlawfully entered upon said tract of land and dispossessed the plaintiffs thereof and withheld from them the possession of same; that the defendants claim as heirs of Daniel Lacy, who once held the title to said land, but that they became divested of all claim or title by conveyance or under the statutes of limitations of five and ten years, said 336 6-10 acres of land being described as beginning at the southeast corner of a tract of land belonging to Dr. John M. Colley; thence west 2330 vrs. to Mrs. E. M. Young's n. e. corner; thence south with Mrs. Young's e. b. line 790 vrs.; thence east 760 vrs.; thence s. 71 e. 495 vrs. to Fred Gibson's e. corner; thence n. 55 e. with the Sanchez line 24 vrs.; thence s. 55 e. 612 8-10 vrs.; thence n. 35 e. to east fence of section house yard; thence n. 35 e. 9 8-10 vrs.; thence n. 37 w. 140 vrs.; thence n. 87 e. 70 vrs.; thence n. 35 e. 97 vrs.; thence s. 87 w. 74 vrs.; thence n. 35 e. 150 vrs.; thence n. 87 e. 150 vrs.; thence Piano.

Theo. Lehman, Walter Roquemore, Jim Mobley and Ike Elliott composed the quartette singing "You Own My Heart Forever, Madeline."

Harry Sims was "there with the goods" in his voiceless song and soft shoe dancing.

Clarence Pearson did well as a monologist. He endeavored to give a description of a wreck between an I. & G. N. and Santa Fe train, but the I. & G. N. train was two hours late and he had to postpone the wreck.

Gus Haerdner, as usual, got off several good jokes on the other fellow. Sherman and Thresto, "The Spoiled Kids," in a talking, singing and dancing stunt, were good.

The program closed with "The Johnson Bros. Return From College." All, or nearly all the boys, took part in this act. D. G. Dunk presented, to the delight of the audience, the latest thing in a sheath gown, from Worst, Paris, France. Chas. Thresto wore the sheath trousers. The "Saloon Dance" by Gus Haerdner captured the house. It was a great presentation. Trice's Orchestra furnished the music during the evening.

There is only one objection that can be raised to the performance of last evening, and that was a few of the jokes were rough—some of them very rough.

The show as a whole was good, and Palestine people will welcome another performance by this company.

The Grand Fraternity, for whose benefit the minstrel was given, is one of the growing lodges of the country. The following information is gathered from the programs distributed last evening: "The Grand Fraternity was incorporated November 7, 1885. The statistics published concerning fraternal societies show that The Grand Fraternity is holding its own as a growing institution. This is evident that the Fraternity is appreciated for its adequate rates and correct equitable plans. It also shows that 'cheapness' is no longer necessary for growth. A society whose banner flaunts 'Not How Cheap, But How Good,' finds favor among intelligent, provident people. The standing of The Grand Fraternity shows this. Our watchwords are: 'The widow of a Frater shall never want for bread, and his children shall be cared for until they can care for themselves.'"

The officers of Palestine Branch No. 137 are: Frank W. Pell, commander; J. M. Wilson, vice commander; Mrs. Ida Cahill, regent; J. T. McClellan, treasurer and recorder; B. F. Harry, marshal; L. R. Peace, sentry; L. E. Vernon, guard; J. M. Wilson, collector.

CITATION.

The State of Texas.
To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Anderson County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon the unknown heirs of Luke McLeod, deceased, the unknown heirs of Thos. J. Johnson, deceased, M. J. Watson and W. C. Watson and their heirs and S. L. Lane and his heirs, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for eight successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the Third Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said Third Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Anderson county, to be held at the court house thereof, in Palestine, on the 5th Monday in November, A. D. 1908, the same being the 30th day of November, A. D. 1908, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 2nd day of October, A. D. 1908, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 7966, where in W. E. Wyse, Hatie B. Owens, joined by her husband, J. F. Owens, Mrs. E. B. Moore and Mrs. L. A. Stoddard are plaintiffs, and the unknown heirs of Luke McLeod, deceased, the unknown heirs of Thos. J. Johnson, deceased, M. J. Watson and W. C. Watson and their heirs and S. L. Lane and his heirs are defendants, and said petition alleging:

That heretofore on the 1st day of August, 1908, plaintiffs were in the lawful possession as the owners in fee simple of the following described tract of land, situated in Anderson county, Texas, on the waters of the Neches river, and being a part of a survey of 640 acres made for V. S. Anglin, assignee for Luke McLeod, and being 100 acres out of the n. w. corner of said survey of 640 acres, and beginning at the original n. w. corner of said survey and running so as to include 100 acres out of the n. w. corner of said survey; that thereafter on the 15th day of August, 1908, the defendants unlawfully entered upon the above described land and ejected plaintiffs therefrom, and withholds from plaintiffs the possession thereof, to their great damage. Plaintiffs claim said land under a chain of title from the state of Texas, and by virtue of three, five and ten years' statutes of limitation, each of which is specially pleaded in said petition. The heirs of Thos. J. Johnson claim said land under a deed from Thos. J. Adams of date June 24th, 1873, but plaintiffs allege that at the time of such conveyance the said Adams had no right or title in said land to convey.

That on the 1st day of September, 1884, said V. S. Anglin conveyed said 100 acres of land to M. J. Watson, wife of W. C. Watson, E. J. Evans and S. L. Lane, and that all of said last mentioned parties thereafter sold and conveyed said land to a purchaser under whom plaintiffs derive title, and that said parties thereby became divested of all their right and title to said land, and plaintiffs acquired title thereto.

Said petition praying for judgment against all of said defendants for said land, for cost of suit and general and special relief.

Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, J. F. Brown, Clerk of the district court of Anderson county.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Palestine this the 2nd day of October, A. D. 1908.

(Seal) J. F. Brown,
Clerk of the District Court of Anderson County.
